News

The story this week was BLOWOUTS! In all four team matches, the winning team took over 40 points! Team 8 must have read the bully last week about stopping the steamroller of Team 2 and took 44.5 points to move into 2nd place and cut the gap to only 7 points. Their B group of Harnois and Coffey soundly defeated Team 1's B group of Nassaney and Romas, taking 12 points in the process. Their D group of Latourette and Leblanc stomped on poor solo player, Chris Capuano by a 14-4 score. Team 2 only took 30 points this week and there are rumors about chicken and beer in clubhouse with this team as the end of the 2nd half approaches. Their opponent was Team 5 who also narrowed their gap to only 9.5 points out of first place. This sets up a potential match for 1st place when Team 8 and Team 2 clash this week. Does Team 2 have the mental and physical stamina to stay in the lead? Will Crooked Pete scheme up something to ensure they stay on top? Will Harnois keep the same form he has the last few weeks or resort to his earlier season inconsistency with the pressure on him now? Rumor has it that he is still pissed off from a few weeks ago when he broke 40 and didn't feel the love as all the attention went to Michno and Linskey for their shutout round! I would expect lots of banter on the 1st tee and in the 19th this week so come on in, join the fun..... and buy the scribe a beer!

Teams 5 and 6 are still in the running for a playoff spot or even 1st place with 2 weeks to go. And even Team 7 has a shot. If only Team 7 was playing the "Tankers" (aka Team 9) every week they'd cruise into the playoffs. I'm not sure if Team 9's strategy of padding handicaps for the finals is a good move as you want to go into the Championship with momentum. We'll see if this backfires.

Team 4's hopes are fading as they got demolished by Team 3 led by strong showings by Charlie Walsh and Ken Pietrzak. Ken almost ended up on the winning end of an 18-0 match this week as his opponents didn't score a point until Hole 5. For the first time this season it seems, Team 3 is no longer in the basement! And not to leave anyone out, Team 1's dream of a playoff spot are delusional at best!

Info should be coming out this week regarding the playoff dates and EOY tourney so stay tuned.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Please pay attention to the rules of scoring matches when there is a Noah. Remember that the matches are one on one and the tick marks for handicaps need to be adjusted accordingly for each individual match. The league officers have listed this in the rules and the daily blast has mentioned this numerous times, even including examples of how to score and also suggesting that you go into the clubhouse, get two more cards and keep two scorecards, one for each match, so you won't be confused.

Joke of the Week

At The Water Cooler

Two men are talking at the water cooler at work one Monday morning.

"What did you do this weekend" asked Don.

"Dropped hooks into water." replied Dave.

"Fishing, eh"

"No, golfing."

Quote of the Week

"Talking to a golf ball won't do you any good, unless you do it while your opponent is teeing off." ~ Bruce Lansky
