News

For the 1st week this year, there was absolutely no movement in the standings. Team 2 held on to their 7 point lead over Team 8 as they tied their match. Team 5 inched a little closer to a playoff spot by winning their match and are only 1 point behind 2nd place. Team 6 is still in the running only 6.5 points out of 2nd place. So this week Team 2 just needs to hold their own against last place Team 9 to stay on top. Team 8 needs to beat an improved Team 3 and hope that Team 5 doesn't beat up on Team 6. Team 6 needs a win in a bigly way against Team 5 and hopes that Team 8 collapses. Well, all I can say is that this will probably come down to the last few cards being dropped off at the 19th to determine who will play for the 2nd half crown. This could be the 4:30 match between Teams 5 and 6's C group. No pressure Paiva, Zingarelli, Curtis and Simone!

The flyer for the End of Year Tourney was distributed last week. Get your foursomes (and payments) into Dave Nassaney as soon as you can.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Please pay attention to the rules of scoring matches when there is a Noah. Remember that the matches are one on one and the tick marks for handicaps need to be adjusted accordingly for each individual match. The league officers have listed this in the rules and the daily blast has mentioned this numerous times, even including examples of how to score and also suggesting that you go into the clubhouse, get two more cards and keep two scorecards, one for each match, so you won't be confused.

Pace of Play (Formerly Slow Play Watch):

The first group completed their match in 2 hours and 10 minutes. By the time the 3:58 tee time entered the 19th, it took them over 3 hours. So something happened in between. One thing that was noticeable was in at least three occasions, a group was waiting on 10th tee for the last person in their foursome to show up. Had that person arrived a little earlier, they could have teed off and hopefully kept pace with the group ahead. Some of these players knew they were running late and didn't appear to be speeding up their pace to get to the tee. Sad! So maybe players should start keeping former NY Giants coach Tom Coughlin time which is..... showing up 10 minutes early means you are on time! You should be ready to tee off at your assigned time so showing up a little earlier will ensure that happens. Plus you won't be rushing your first shot and sailing it over the fence or shanking it into the 4th fairway. And sometimes.....amazing as it may seem.... the first group tees off earlier than 2:30pm so if the next group was there 10 minutes early, they could tee off a little earlier.....Imagine the next group being there as well? And the next? It would be a cascading effect! It would be a movement, a revolution! Yes a NUWC Golf Employees League Fast Paced Revolution!.....I'll see this when pigs fly!

Joke of the Week

Kicked Ball or A Typical NUWC League Golfer!

A group of golfers were putting on the green when suddenly a ball dropped in their midst.

One of the party winked at the others and kicked the ball into the hole.

Seconds later a very fat player puffed on to the green quite out of breath and red of face.

He looked round distractedly and asked: "Seen my ball?"

"Yeah, it went in the hole," the joker answered with a straight face.

The fat one looked at him unbelievably.

Then he walked to the hole, looked in, reached down and picked up his ball. His astonishment was plain to see.

Then he turned, ran down the fairway and as he neared his partner the group on the green heard him shout:

"Hey, Sam, I got an eleven."

Quote of the Week

Golf Cartoon of the Week

"I hear this is one of the tougher greens to putt on."
