Birdie (or Better) Report (7/20):

Birdie Report
Name	Hole Number
Codyer	7
Huggins	7
Petit	7
Young	7
Powden	7
Cerbarano	3

Appears hole number 7 was playing easy this week with five birdies scored. Of course Gino had to be different and birdie a different hole. I'm tellin' yah man!

WEEKLY LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for WEEK 12: Codyer (41)

LOW NET scores for WEEK 12:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
-------	------	------	-------------	-----------

A	Barbara Keller	6	45	34
B	Tom Powden	1	45	33
C	Marc Coffland	4	46	33
	Adam Macksoud	2	49
D	Diane Letourneau	4	53	33

2nd Half LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for the SECOND HALF: Dandrea (39)

LOW NET scores for THE SECOND HALF:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
A	Bob Wind	1	42	32
B	Mark Zingarelli	5	47	33
	Tom Powden	1	45
C	Marc Coffland	4	48	33
	Adam Macksoud	2	49
D	Bill Leblanc	3	54	33
	Diane Letourneau	4	53

Powden, Macksoud and Letourneau all join the ranks for low net this week. But with most of the 2nd half left to play, these names probably won't stay on the leaderboard for much longer.

News

The big news of the night was that we had several people with the same name and handicap playing this week. In fact there were 10 people named Noah on the golf course. Rumor has it that many people didn't show up because they wanted to go on a field trip to tour a tugboat. And once on, they all were fighting each other for the opportunity to blow the horn, similar to a 6 year old who has a penchant for tooting the horn on a semi or pushing the siren button on a fire truck. Heard Harnois was ready to jump ship as well as he thought it was a party cruise but then decided to stay at GVCC once he found out he would be playing solo and would have to forfeit if he had left. C'mon people! Where's the loyalty to the league? (And we all know... we need a bit more of that!). Hopefully we can field a full 72 people this week. If poor attendance keeps up we may have to consider going to less teams in the future.

I am sure you all have heard the saying in sports that "The road to the championship goes through enter team name here." Usually it is the best Team..... Patriots in Football, Warriors in Basketball, Penguins in Hockey, and probably the Dodgers or Houston this year in Baseball. But NOT in the NGL! In the NGL, apparently the Road to the Championship goes through Team 8! Seems anyone who plays them takes 48.5 points and moves into 1st place! Last week it was Team 7'S turn. It also didn't hurt that Team 7 recruited Matt "Jordon Spieth" Bessette who claimed on the 1st tee that he usually shoots 55 or 56 for nine holes and then lit it up with a 43! Having 3

Noah's or Steamboat Willie's on Team 8 also helped Team 7 out a bit. And once again where is Team 8's Captain? He missed another week and apparently has totally bailed on his Team. Will it be Team 6's turn this week when they face the failing Team 8?

And speaking of loyalty, while so many others in the NGL display none, we have witnessed a most unselfish act by our reigning president. Knowing he will be unable to play for his team in September for the playoffs, he has recused himself as a regular in the league and will now only sub. This is the most tremendously selfless act of loyalty to a team that any NGL president has ever done in the history of the NUWC Golf League! Although the Team 4 Captain didn't look at it this way as he was overheard at the 19th stating, "Had I known that David was going to recuse himself after he was put on my team, I would have lobbied to make sure he never got on my team." But no worries for Dale. The Prez replaced himself with a ringer in Jay DeLeon. Rumor has it that Dave is now paying only $1 for a footlong sandwich and has gone on the Jared diet!

Did anyone see the confrontation that was brewing on the 1st tee? Apparently Romeo was taunting Barbara on how he would kick her butt in a one on one match. This was going to be the biggest inter-gender match since Bobby Riggs took on Billie Jean King (or Andy Kaufman taking on any female wrestler!). They ended up taking this so serious that they refused to share a cart and each drove their own individual cart. It didn't matter that Buster had been scrambling all afternoon to free up carts due to the high demand because of the heat! They were both honeybadgers – just didn't give a s@*t! But just like the Riggs-King match of years ago, the woman prevailed easily smoking Romeo 11 to 7. Unfortunately, unlike the Oscar buzz that is surrounding the soon to be released Riggs-King movie, neither Barbara or Romeo will be receiving any awards.

And I'm sure that many of you were glued to your TV set watching Jordon Spieth's miraculous comeback at the Open Championship after a miserable 13th hole. But please don't take any lessons away from what happened on the 13th hole. Spieth took 25 minutes trying to figure out what his options were to recover from his terrible drive. Remember a) He is a pro b) He was playing in a major championship for beaucoup bucks c) He was more concerned about not collapsing like he did at the Masters and needed to get this right if he was to have a chance to win (while most of you are only ball hawking and worried about losing a $2 ball) d) You won't shoot birdie, eagle, birdie, birdie like he did after this poor hole e) He isn't in the NUWC Golf League and won't be ripped in the bully for playing slow and f) He is Jordon Spieth and you're not! We sent out pointers about potential lost balls (hit a provisional, etc.) to speed up play which won't be repeated here. But please don't imitate Jordon while you are out on the course no matter whether you have delusions of grandeur.

And what the heck was that at the 19th? I wanted to drink a few beers and get a scoop on any interesting fodder for the bully but could barely hear anything because of the distraction! I had a hard time restraining myself from doing this!

I'm sorry. It just isn't right!

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

I wasn't in the 19th when all of the later tee times came in so not sure if there were any delays. I had a tee time in the middle and came in just about at 2 ½ hours which really isn't too bad. Although there was a slight disagreement on the 1st tee when a group was waiting for their fourth and could have been hitting their drives while they waited since the group ahead was already on the green. If you are ready, and it is your time to tee off, you shouldn't be waiting for people to show up. Either let the next group tee off in your place and drop down a spot or tee off and let the straggler catch up to you. As a rule, you should try to be at the 1st tee (10th tee if we are playing the back – needed to add that for all the weekend lawyers in the league) at least 10 minutes prior to your scheduled tee time. Every minute saved counts and helps make it a shorter and more enjoyable round. Now I will get off my soapbox.

Joke of the Week

Beware What You Ask

A wife and her husband are sitting around one evening, just talking, when the wife suddenly asks, "If I died, would you re-marry?"

"I would," the husband answered.

"You would?" the wife asked, a bit surprised. "Would you let her come into my house?"

"I would."

"Would she be cooking in my kitchen?"

"She would!"

"Would she be soaking in my bathtub?"

"She would!"

"Would she be putting her clothes in my closet?"

"She would!"

Growing more exasperated, the wife continued asking: "Would she be driving my car?"

"She would!"

"Would she be sleeping in my bed?"

"She would!"

"Would she be using my golf clubs?"

"Oh, no, definitely not."

"Why not?"

"She's left-handed."
