All new leaders in the A, B and C groups. All of these scores look like they could be topped before the end of the year. Pietrzak and Wilusz would have probably shot 66's if they were in the same foursome. Actually that happens this week so watch their scores explode!

News

Team 7 held court but that was probably because Team 4 had a bye week. Many blowouts as well but many are still in contention for a playoff spot. Team 8 is still on the bottom as they came 30 points short of their goal of 72 points this week. They may want to have less lofty expectations.

I apologize that this is such a weak bully. I had so much topical material to work with – Mooch fires out expletives, Spicey resigns, Preibus resigns, Mooch fired, Health Care Bill fails, POTUS tweets a storm (of course this material is always available), another missile launch from Pyongyang, etc. etc. Unfortunately on the tees and at the 19th you guys gave me nothing! It's either that or I'm simply losing my touch (but I doubt it) or being lazy.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

Joke of the Week

There were two men who played golf together frequently. One was several strokes better than the other. The lesser player was very proud, and never wanted to take any strokes to even up the game.

One Saturday morning, he shows up with a gorilla at the first tee. He says to his friend, "I've been trying to beat you for so long that I'm about ready to give up. But, I heard about this golfing gorilla, and I was wondering if it would be alright if he plays for me today. In fact if you're game, I'd like to try to get back all the money I've lost to you this year. I figure comes to about a thousand bucks. Are you willing?"

The other guy thought about it for a minute, and then decided to play the gorilla. "After all, how good could a gorilla be at golf?" he thought.

Well, the first hole was a straightaway par 4 of 450 yards. The guy hits a beautiful tee shot, 275 yards down the middle, leaving himself a 6 iron to the green. The gorilla takes a few powerful practice swings and then laces the ball 450 yards, right at the pin, stopping about 6 inches away from the hole.

The guy turns to his friend and says "That's incredible, I would have never believed it if I hadn't seen it with my own eyes. But, you know what, I've seen enough. I've got no interest in being totally humiliated by this gorilla golfing machine. You send this frigging gorilla back to where he comes from. I need a drink; better make it a double, and I'll write you a check."

After handing over the check, and well into his second double the guy asks, "By the way, how's that gorilla's putting?"

The other guy replies, "Same as his driving."

"That good, huh?"

"No, I mean, he hits putts the same way - 450 yards, right down the middle!"

Quote of the Week

"Somebody made the statement that Donald Trump has built or owns the greatest collection of golf courses, ever, in the history of golf. And I believe that is 100 percent true" ~ Donald Trump
