More moves for the low gross leads. Aker and Cirillo both shoot a net 29 to take the lead in the B's, although as always, Aker's score will be scrutinized! Adam Macksoud has the round of his life and overtakes the Polish Princes in the C group. And Bob Latourette had no problems finding his ball after every shot this week as most ended up in the hole for him to take command in the D group.

News

This will be short and sweet as I am on TDY and am in a hurry to get this bully out.

Team 9 takes over the lead but it is only 1 ½ points over Team 7. And Team 9 still has a bye so Team 7's destiny is in their own hands. And Team 7 and 9 play each other this week!

Teams 4, 6, and 2 are still in contention for a playoff spot and remember that Team 2 still has a match with Team 8 which is almost a guarantee for them to take at least 42 points! Sorry Team 8.....you really do suck!

I was informed by the NGL MADD (Mothers Against Disastrous Duffers) that someone potentially stepped into the line of fire of a drive from the 9th tee when they went to their errant shot off the left of the 6th green. This is a dangerous spot so both the person who had a miserable shot that put them in this predicament off 6 and the people teeing off on 9 need to look twice. Duffers are everywhere!!!!

League officers are getting a lot of complaints about pace of play and how to speed things up. I guess haters gotta hate. And just so you know, all the people making suggestions are going to perfect nominees for upcoming NGL Officers spots at the end of the season! I'm taking Names! I know of one position that will need to be filled and there could be more. So very quickly let me summarize a few things. I won't elaborate because all this info is constantly provided in the past bullies and daily blasts.

- Play ready golf. If you don't know what this means search golf sites on the web or ask an NGL officer
- Wave people up on Par 3's when you reach the green.
- Stop trying to save a buck looking for lost balls. Hit provisionals when you aren't sure
- Maybe let the people in your foursome who are the shortist hitters (and not in height) tee off first regardless of who has honors
- Just use common courtesy and common sense

On another note – for the 2nd week in a row I was very disappointed with the beer cart this week! Maybe it was because we had the 2:30 slot and were a bit ahead of the others. Didn't see the cart until after hole #7.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

You are still on watch!

Joke of the Week (Sorry – Recycled)

Police are called to an apartment and find a man standing, holding a 5 iron in his hands, looking at the lifeless body of a woman on the floor.

The detective asks, "Sir, is that your wife?"

"Yes."

"Did you hit her with that golf club?"

"Yes, yes, I did." The man stifles a sob, drops the club, and puts his hands on his head.

"How many times did you hit her?" asked the policeman

The man replied, "I don't know. Five, six, seven.....Put me down for a five."

Quote of the Week

"My golf score seems to improve considerably when I have the score card" ~ This could be attributed to many NGL players
