Birdie (or Better) Report (8/24):

Birdie Report
Name	Hole Number
Dube	10
Harnois	15
Velasco	16
Bertsch	10,15

WEEKLY LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for WEEK 17: Velasco (41)

LOW NET scores for WEEK 16:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
A	Romeo Velasco	9	41	34
	Neil Jackson	3	45
B	Paul Linskey	8	46	34
C	John Spirito	SUB	42	32
D	Marshall Lundberg	6	51	31

2nd Half LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for the SECOND HALF: Schwab (36)

LOW NET scores for THE SECOND HALF:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
A	Tony Caldwell	6	40	29
B	Don Aker	6	41	29
	Ron Cirillo	2	43
C	Adam Macksoud	2	42	28
D	Marshall Lundberg	6	51	31

Nobody challenged the A,B, and C group Low Nets. Still looks like they will be tough to beat. Marshall Lundberg saw an opening in the D group and shot a 51, net 31 to take over the lead in that group. Two weeks to go to step up to the plate and grab the lead in any of these groups!

News

Apparently Team 8 doesn't suck after all. They won their match for the 2nd week in a row. The problem was that they only needed 15 weeks to warm up! Truth be told that after further analysis, it appears the demise of team 8 can be attributed to a single individual in their C group whose name is not Pierre. Although in this unnamed player's defense this week he didn't know he was facing opponents as well as the Golf Gods. Adam Macksoud had help from the trees on several holes where what should have been an out of bounds shot ended up getting a member's bounce leaving Adam with an unobstructed and clear shot. In particular, on the 14th, Adam airmailed a wedge from about 75 yards away from the green, it hit the large tree behind the green about half way up, then bounced back 180 degrees onto the green and about 8 feet from the cup leading to a great Par save by Adam. Other gifts from the Gods weren't as impressive but they certainly helped his score and their score of the match.

Appears Captain Hillenbrand is only a slight evil genius based on the results of the Team 3 vs. Team 7 match. He hedged his bets in the A group by placing one of his team members on Team 3 while he filled in on the opposing Team A squad. He could watch how each hole was going and then tank appropriately if Team 3 didn't appear to be winning the hole. He placed another of his team on the Team 3D squad. In both the A and D groups, Team 3 beat team 7. But it was really Harnois and Simone in the B's that helped add to Team 9's lead with a 12-6 win over Petit and Donovan.

Although Team 9 slightly extended their lead, with one week to go and the make-up week on 7 September, it looks like Teams 7 and 6 are all in position to challenge for the top spot. And Teams 2, 3 and 4 have an outside shot at the top spot but are definitely in the running for 2nd place with a few good weeks. It looks like it is going to come down to the wire on 7 September to see which two of these 6 Teams will be playing for the 2nd half crown.

Correction – Last week I had the right date of the makeup week but wrong week.

Please note that Sept. 7th is the make-up week for Week 11 (July 13th).

Also, we are still getting ready for the End of Year Tournament which will be played at Ledgemont on 26 September. The league will be sending out an announcement with the details very soon so keep an eye out for it.

You also should have received an email requesting nominees for the 2018 NGL officers. We need new blood as some of us will be retiring but we'd like to help the new officers before we leave. So if you want the league to keep going into the future, please throw your hat into the ring and we will vote at the end of year tournament. Don't assume the officers doing the job now will be doing it in the future. This humble scribe plans to hang up his pen (or keyboard) at the end of the year so the scribe/secretary position is definitely available. Just think of the revenge you could have on the scribe when the power of the pen is in your hands! If anyone wants to know more about the positions and responsibilities, please speak with a current officer.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Wednesday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

I had a 3:42 tee time and it went pretty well. Although there is always room for improvement

Joke of the Week

More from the from The Golfer's Dictionary

Advice - According to the rules of golf, advice is "any counsel or suggestion made by one golfer to another about the choice of club, method of play or making of a shot, which contains no more than five errors of fact, contradictory statements or harmful recommendations. Six or more such pieces of misinformation or misinstruction shall constitute a formal golf lesson."

Backswing - The part of the swing that takes place after the ball has been improperly addressed but before it has been sent to the wrong destination.

Follow-through - The part of the swing that takes place after the ball has been hit but before the club has been thrown.

Swing - A full golf swing consists of the backswing that carries the clubhead up to the topswing point, the downswing that brings the clubhead to the point of impact, and the follow through. If the ball dribbles a few feet forward or hooks or slices violently into the woods or rough, the follow-through can be extended into the foresling-a graceful, lateral motion that sends the club spiraling into the underbrush. Alternatively, the follow-through may be stopped and the club brought up sharply in a vertical arc until the clubhead is behind the back, pointing at the ground, then swept smoothly up into the more classic topfling, which combines the power and accuracy necessary to send even the heaviest club into a distant water hazard

Quote of the Week

"Golf is an unusual game. When you have a good day, you can't wait to get back out there, and when you have a bad day, you can't wait to get back out there." ~ Unknown
