News

After four weeks, it looks like Team 2 aka "The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen" look like the team to beat in the first half. After taking a hefty 47.5 points in Week 1, they still managed to win their match in Week 2 and banging out a respectable 35.5 in week 3 and 33 in week 4 with Pete the Man Handler taking it on the road and covering for Halpin with his Back Surgery. Team 2 is showing they can move the League with Team Spirit and Cohesiveness to Capture the first half.

Team 8, 7, and Team 6 aren't really that far behind and actually, only 4 weeks into the season, it still is anybody's game. Remember you are playing for the top two spots to make the 1st half playoffs.

Notes:

Scoring:

This year we have implemented hole-by-hole scoring into the online system. What we mean by "scoring" is we enter actual strokes taken. The system then calculates the CORRECT MATCH points per hole based on those strokes taken. This alleviates common errors as found on the cards (many times where strokes were not given or taken properly and added incorrectly.) When people are attesting the cards, they are attesting to the strokes taken.

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Thursday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Thursday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

Guys it is starting to show and look like slow play so keep the pace of play up. If you are ready hit don't wait for everyone else while they talk and slow down. Searching for balls is ok as long as you aren't holding up the groups. Move it on up to the East Side.

Joke of the Week

Bad Eyesight

Bob wearily trudged into his house and laid down his bag of golf clubs. "How was your game, darling" asked his wife, Jane. "I was hitting the ball ok, but my eyesight's gotten so damn bad I couldn't see where the ball went." shrugged Bob.

"Well, you're 75 years old," said Jane. "You can't expect everything to be like it was. Why don't you take my brother Jimmy along" "But he's 85 and he doesn't even play golf any more" protested Bob. "But he's got perfect eyesight," Jane pointed out. "he can watch the ball for you."

So the next day Bob teed off with Jimmy looking on. He swung and the ball disappeared down the middle of the fairway. "Do you see it, do you see it" asked Bob in anticipation. "Yep!" Jimmy answered. "Well where is it" exclaimed Bob, peering off into the distance.

"I forgot," said Jimmy.

Quote of the Week

Golf is a game in which you yell "fore"... shoot six... and write down five.
