No movement this week in any division. You all have one more week to knock these people off their throne!

News

Team 7 just keeps on cruising by smoking Team 1 to the tune of 53-19! They essentially have locked up 1st place for the 1st half extending their lead over the next best team by 24 points. They have a bye in Week 9 and it is a million to one shot that Team 4 will score 61 points to overtake them. But Team 4 is playing Team 1 the last week so the Team 4 Captain Dandrea was heard saying "So you're telling me I've got a chance". By the way.....has anyone seen Team 1? They fielded only 2 regular players this week. The officers are already meeting with Hood and Garelick Farms to have their faces placed on milk cartons. Hopefully this is not a mutiny of Captain Snoke (although he has been seen spooning out and counting strawberries in his office so you never know) and Team 1 shows up in Week 9 so that Team 4 isn't handed a playoff spot and has to earn it. C'mon Team 1 - you are in last place but you certainly could wear the moniker of "spoiler"! Plus, it's really not fair to your Captain who has to scramble every week to find subs.

There was a little movement with the 3rd through 5th place teams as Team 3 moved up two spots to 3rd place led by their D squad of Mendonca and Codyer taking Team 2D's Wiatrowski and sub Hassan to the woodshed with a sound 13.5-4.5 win. Rumor has it that upon getting word that Hassan, a Team 4 player was subbing on Team 2 who was nipping at their heels, the Team 4 Captain, still upset about his sub's handicap being changed last week, demanded that Scott tank so that Team 2 couldn't get any closer to them. Will the conspiracy against Team 2 ever end? Just so you know, we will be addressing the "unknown handicap" in a revision to the rules which will be in effect for the 2nd half. People may not like it but without rules, there is chaos!

Team 9 switched places with Team 3 and dropped to 5th place as their A and D squads just couldn't get it done. Hillenbrand and Wind just couldn't match the father/son duo who are the Velasco's and lost 12-6. In the D's it appears that Team 9's Griffin and Macksoud may have imbibed a bit too much the previous night at Beaker's Retirement

Party (Pierre – the cat is out of the bag!) as they also lost by the score of 12-6 to the D group low weekly net players, Pat (not to be confused with “Loud Pants”) Gallagher and Fred Green of Team 5. At least there was some evidence that Jim must have as he was still sporting his straw party hat during his round!

Even with all the conspiracies, the League of Extraordinary Gentleman, aka Team 2, stood pat in 4th place and only 5.5 points from 2nd place. So going into the last week, only 7.5 points separate the 2nd place and 5th place teams. Teams 3, 2 and 9 all have a chance and are counting on some help from Team 1. Even Team 8 has an outside chance if they demolish team 9 and get help from Teams, 1, 5 and 6. This should be a real exciting week and it could come down to the last cards coming in from the 4:06 to 4:30 tee times! So you might want to stick around the 19th hole when you are done this week as I’m sure the suspense and tension will be immense and I would imagine quite a bit of banter between these contending teams!

News on the midyear tournament has been announced via email and details are in the hot news section. Tourney is 9:00am on 22 June at Agawam and the firm deadline to sign up your foursomes and make payment is 18 June. So don’t hesitate, get your foursomes and payment in now!

Also, the 1st half playoff will be held on 25 June. While that is going on, we plan to have a mini-tourney for the rest of the league. Watch for details via email and hot news on our website once the two playoff teams have been decided and we can generate the teams and tee times.

Notes:

Captains should e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Thursday to give their line-ups. However, I’m sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Thursday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

There was a pileup on the 5th tee early into the matches. People did start calling the groups behind them up which helped speed it up a little bit. So please remember to do this when you see this happening. I had a 3:18 tee time and finished in about 2 hours 40 minutes which is still a bit too long.

Joke of the Week

Note

A man came home from golfing one day only to find that his wife had left a note on the fridge saying: "It's not working. I can't take it anymore!! Gone to stay with my Mother."
The man opened the fridge, the light came on, and the beer was ice cold.....
He muttered to himself, "What the hell is she talking about?"

Quote of the Week

"My favorite shots are the practice swing and the conceded putt. The rest can never be mastered."
