D	Joe Izzi	1	52	28

Note: Subs are ineligible for prizes

Appears Tod Camara accepted the challenge presented in the previous bully to dethrone Fratus from the individual award lead in the A groups. He knocked Tim off the Low Gross pedestal by shooting an even par 35!!!!!! Now someone needs to bump Fratus from the Low Net top spot. And Joe Izzi dispelled the idea that "It's not the wand.... It's the wizard" by shooting a 52 with a 24 handicap for a net 28!!!!!! He had purchased a new driver earlier in the week and it definitely worked for him as he was straight down the middle on every hole!!!!

News

After 8 weeks, Team 9 extended its lead over Team 3 to 10.5 points and is in the driver's seat to take the 1st half. Team 3 needs a strong showing and hope that Team 5 does some damage to Team 9. But Team 3 doesn't want Team 5 to do too much damage as Team 5 could actually sneak into the top spot if they can put on an old fashioned ass whipping on Team 9 (They'd need 44.5 points and hope that Team 3 doesn't score over 37 points). Someone needs to make Team 9 the Phil Mickelson of the NUWC Golf League!!!

As previously stated, Tod Camara shot a 35 last night and took 13.5 off Keith Casey. It was rumored that the VP sent Tod out there as a hatchet man to seek revenge for the massacre of the VP's A-team last week. While the VP strongly denied the accusation when he was told, he couldn't help but grin.

Another round of note was the 13-5 beating by Krzych and Hill on Snoke and Mellin to keep Team 9 in the lead. Speaking of GD Mellin, he strikes again! Two weeks after running over Michno's cart on #5, this week Jim put his cart into a sand trap. This begs the question did it back in because he forgot to put on the brake or drive it in intentionally to play a bunker shot and got stuck. It took 4 guys and driving out backwards to get the cart out of the trap. Mellin was heard to say "After so many years of honing my trap play at Green valley without it, who knew they'd start putting real sand in the traps again?" Well stated Jim, the fairway bunkers have been hard pan dirt for so long I thought GV had paved them back in '10. Due to this incident, we are investigating suspicious cart tracks reported in another sandtrap during Week #6.

The Tom Freeman roller coaster ride continued this week. He shot a 43 with a 12 handicap up in the A division. His captain/partner/VP has been waiting all half for Tom's game to come around bolstering hope for Team 4's second half chances (somebody else can come in dead last in the 2nd half. Can Freeman be the one to overtake Fratus for low net in the A's?

Halpin on the 9th hole with the match all tied up goes to hit his third shot and hits the hosel nearly killing Fred Green and left a big mark. Corriveau was noted to say "way to go Brian trying to steal the hole from us". Luckily Fred said he was OK after a whole lot of limping and being egged on by Pierre. They won the hole but with a price on Fred.

Reminder that the web page is back on line. The Golf League Website is now at:

Please use this new URL from now on for league info and sub requests!

Notes:

Captains should call/e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Thursday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Thursday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information (of course only from outside NUWC presently) or forward on news as appropriate.

Dues – Apparently, the President's threats to penalize teams having members delinquent in their dues was a success. Tim Fratus upon hearing the league was considering imposing a prorated point penalty based on the ratio of players on the team who had not paid their dues, decided 1st half honors were too important to lose on a technicality. Thus Tim fronted Tom Powden the $40 dollars out of his own pocket to clear his team's delinquency record. Tim then proceeded to ask every new face that came into in the bar Thursday night "Are you Tom Powden?" No word on whether Powden has repaid Fratus yet, but rumor has it that Tom has changed his name to "Noah Showupa". Good luck Tim. There also was a mad rush to the treasurer's office with the late payments.

Slow Play Watch:

I didn't hear any complaints at the 19th, however attendance at the 19th was low and many decided to play extra holes so I may have missed some complaints. I'm sure I'll hear from you if there was an issue. Not that your complaints will result in any improvement.

Joke of the Week

Golf Fence

A little old lady was walking down the street dragging two large plastic garbage bags behind her. One of the bags was ripped and every once in a while a $20 fell out onto the sidewalk.

Noticing this, a policeman stopped her, and said,
"Ma'am, there are $20 bills falling out of that bag."

"Oh, really? Darn it!" said the little old lady. "I'd better go back and see if I can find them. Thanks for telling me officer."

"Well, now, not so fast," said the cop.

"Where did you get all that money? You didn't steal it, did you?"

"Oh, no, no", said the old lady.

"You see, my back yard is right next to a Golf course. A lot of Golfers come and pee through a knot hole in my fence, right into my flower garden.

It used to really tick me off. Kills the flowers, you know.

Then I thought, 'why not make the best of it?

So, now, I stand behind the fence by the knot hole, real quiet, with my hedge clippers. Every time some guy sticks his thing through my fence, I surprise him, grab hold of it and say,

'O.K., buddy! Give me $20, or off it comes.'

"Well, that seems only fair," said the cop, laughing.

"OK. Good luck! Oh, by the way, what's in the other bag?"

"Not everybody pays."
