News

Reminder that 26 June - Day of 1st Half Playoffs on Back 9 - No League Play

(The league officers are trying to organize a Mini Tourney for other players that week while the playoffs are going on if Course allows it. You've already seen a bit of info on this and you'll hear more as we get closer to the date)

Well it was nice to play the back 9 for a change. The scores were a mixed bag of some playing better, some staying about the same and others totally collapsing. Kudos to the handicapper in resolving the problems (or at least most of them) with his program to create scorecards for the back 9. Can you imagine if a bunch of Govt. engineers, bean counters, etc, etc, had to actually try to score for themselves?

In the battle for the top spot, Team 2 had a fairly easy match against Team 3 and has now overtaken the lead for the 1st half. It now looks like a two horse race for 1st between those two teams but Team 5 moved closer to a 2nd place spot by taking 40 against Team 9. And Team 5 faces the 2nd place Team 3 this week in what could be an epic battle! Will Berube's squad drop another rung on the ladder this week after leading almost the whole first half? It has been heard that Rick has already tried to take over the Presidency, is actively pursuing to be the lead scribe and is constantly asking the handicapper for spreadsheets in order to take over that position as well. Maybe he should focus on his Captainship vice trying to singlehandedly rule the league! Team 1 still has an outside chance but its hopes are fading.

Unfortunately, this week the scribes both left early and couldn't be there for the usual banter and stories in the 19th - hence the weak bully this week. There is no truth to the rumor that they are dodging the league members in fear of being targeted due to some of their comments in recent bullies.

The recent forecast calls for rain on Wednesday night and possible showers on Thursday morning (hopefully not the afternoon). With the chance of this weather, we will probably see the speed of play improve. Also, in case people were trying to duck out this week, we have prepositioned informants at the Italian Progressive Club, Pulaski Club, Hibernian Club and Academia Club to report on absent players' whereabouts.

Notes:

Captains should call/e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Thursday to give their line-ups. However, I'm sure the handicapper would appreciate Captains providing the line-ups earlier if you have them set. 1100 on Thursday should be the exception, not the rule.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

No Major complaints this week. Advice to all – play like there is imminent inclement weather. The fear of being rained on apparently made people move quicker!

Joke of the Week

The Laws Of Golfing

LAW 1: No matter how bad your last shot was, the worst is yet to come. This law does not expire on the 18th hole, since it has the supernatural tendency to extend over the course of a tournament, a summer and, eventually, a lifetime.

LAW 2: Your best round of golf will be followed almost immediately by your worst round ever. The probability of the latter increases with the number of people you tell about the former.

LAW 3: Brand new golf balls are water-magnetic. Though this cannot be proven in the lab, it is a known fact that the more expensive the golf ball, the greater its attraction to water.

LAW 4: Golf balls never bounce off of trees back into play. If one does, the tree is breaking a law of the universe and should be cut down.

LAW 5: No matter what causes a golfer to muff a shot, all his playing partners must solemnly chant "You looked up," or invoke the wrath of the universe.

LAW 6: The higher a golfer's handicap, the more qualified he deems himself as an instructor.

LAW 7: Every par-three hole in the world has a secret desire to humiliate golfers. The shorter the hole, the greater its desire.

LAW 8: Topping a 3-iron is the most painful torture known to man.

LAW 9: Palm trees eat golf balls.

LAW 10: Sand is alive. If it isn't, how do you explain the way it works against you"

LAW 11: Golf carts always run out of juice at the farthest point from the clubhouse.

LAW 12: A golfer hitting into your group will always be bigger than anyone in your group. Likewise, a group you accidentally hit into will consist of a football player, a professional wrestler, a convicted murderer and an IRS agent -- or some similar combination.

LAW 13: All 3-woods are demon-possessed.

LAW 14: Golf balls from the same "sleeve" tend to follow one another, particularly out of bounds or into the water (see Law three)

LAW 15: A severe slice is a thing of awesome power and beauty.

LAW 16: "Nice lag" can usually be translated to "lousy putt." Similarly, "tough break" can usually be translated "way to miss an easy one, sucker."

LAW 17: The person you would most hate to lose to will always be the one who beats you.

LAW 18: The last three holes of a round will automatically adjust your score to what it really should be.

LAW 19: Golf should be given up at least twice per month.

LAW 20: All vows taken on a golf course shall be valid only until the sunset of the same day.
