Birdie (or Better) Report:

Birdie Report
Name	Hole Number
Schwab	6
Boelter	7
Krzych	7
Moyer	7

Looks like Hole 7 was the easy hole this week. Actually, it is the easy hole every week except too many players slice their drives into the right woods or pull it towards the 8th tee and make it hard! Lefties do the opposite.

WEEKLY LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for THIS WEEK: Schwab, (35)

LOW NET scores for THIS WEEK:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
A	Dan Schwab	1	35	31
B	Pete Michno	3	39	30
C	Pete Decoste	2	44	31
D	Steve Fanning	3	48	32

2nd Half LOW SCORES:

LOW GROSS score for the SECOND HALF: Dan Schwab (35)

LOW NET scores for THE SECOND HALF:

Group	Name	Team	Gross Score	Net Score
A	Romeo Velasco	3	36	29
B	Taylor Velasco	5	39	26
C	Bob Iriye	2	43	29
D	Bob Latourette	7	46	27

Note: Subs are ineligible for prizes

Dan Schwab bumps Velasco the Elder from the low gross lead shooting even par. Great round Dan! If it is any consolation, Romeo, you still have a tough to beat low net for the 2nd half and members will be cheering you on to retake the low gross lead since Dan failed to enter the 19th hole with an entourage of groupies!

News

Team 3 is looking to make amends for their collapse in the 1st half and with 41 points this week they have leapfrogged three teams and are in sole possession of 1st Place. Leading the charge was the B Team of Michno and Petit taking a whopping 15.5 points from Powden and Sub Bob Wind. Michno was quoted as saying, "Our Captain lost control of the team in the 1st half" (recalling chicken wings and empty beer cans scattered around the course). "In the 2nd half, we will win in spite of him." It didn't hurt that despite Dan Schwab shooting a par round, none of the remaining Team 1 squads won their matches. Their C team of Brereton and Pietrzak, who had been the model of consistency in Team 1's rise to the top, got trounced 13.5 to 4.5 by Curtis and Nassaney who moved down to C's. What is it with the prez and Wilusz's teams? Last year Dave shot a 37 and took 17 points from Tom. This year he moves down a group and teaches a lesson to one of Tom's other divisions! Also, not helping Team 1 was their D team that just can't get out of their own way. Tom was quoted as telling Wiatrowski at the 19th that "You really needs to take lessons." Talk about the pot calling the kettle black! Looks like there is trouble in Little Warsaw! Team 1 has now scored less and less points each and every week since the 1st week of the 2nd half but is still only 1 point back. In fact,

Team 1 let more than half the league back into the running as only 13 points now separate the 1st and 6th place teams. Team 8 had an opportunity to move up in the standings to 1st but only managed 32.5 points. Kudos to Team 4 this week for having their best week of the second half! Unfortunately, it was their Bye week!!!!

Appears that Lawrence "Loud Pants" Gallagher has started a fashion trend in the league. Have you noticed the amount of neon green and other bright attire that people are sporting at the course to try to outdo him? No matter how hard you try, it is going to be tough to match Lawrence's orange ensemble (with matching orange bag to add)!

Have you looked at the Newportal Bulletin Board lately? Looks like Gino is having a firesale!

Notes:

We have heard a few comments over the last few weeks that people have gone to the web page and chosen to sub for someone but then arrived at the course only to find that someone else had taken their spot. A check of the web page showed that the "someone else" was the actual name that chose to sub and not the person who made the comment. We believe that people may not be performing the final step in the "accept sub" process by clicking the "Confirm" button. If this is not the case, please contact a league officer so we can check if there is a bug in the system.

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

Didn't hear anything but noticed a pile up on the 5th tee.

Joke of the Week

New Clubs

Carl and Dave were getting ready to tee off on the first hole when Dave noticed that Carl got a new set of clubs.

Dave asked Carl how he liked the clubs and if they've helped his game at all.

Carl replied, "Oh yeah, they're great clubs! They've added at least 25 yards to my slices, about 30 yards to my hooks and you would be surprised at the size of my divots!"

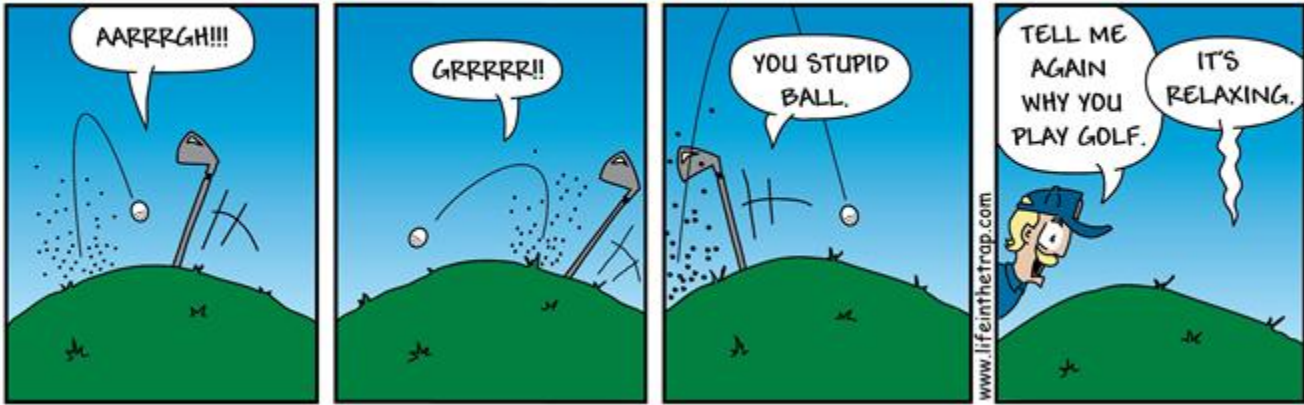

Quote of the Week
