Week #8
30 May, 2019

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

WEDNESDAY TO GIVE THEIR LINE-UPS. DUE TO

In week 8, Team 4 with a bye, sat back and watched if Team 5 could catch up to them. Unlike previous Teams in the past, Team 4 did not collude with Team 9 to fill their sub spots and affect the outcome of the match thereby damaging Team 5's chances while helping the 3rd place Team 9. Although rumor has it that the Team 4 Captain persuaded Hillenbrand to sub hoping his first time back in league play would be of benefit! Unfortunately that didn't work as Chris shot a 47 but still won his match which helped a little bit.

When the results came in, Team 5 cut Team 4's 1st place lead in half but in doing so helped Team 4 by essentially helping Team 4 maintain their distance over the 3rd place teams and almost locking them in for a playoff spot. Team 4 maintains an 18 point lead over 3rd place Team 1 who they play in the last week. Team 1 needs a heroic effort to either knock off Team 4 from their mantle or take over 2nd place from Team 5. This won't be easy as Team 5 plays the bottom dwellers for most of the season in Team 3.

There were great rounds this week by Velasco, Spirito, Cirillo, Brereton, Pat (Non-Loud Pants) Gallagher and Curtis. Still waiting to see the 1st half leaders for low gross and low net on the website! I'm too lazy to keep up with that week to week! But have faith in our webmaster that this will soon be available!

Then there were the lowlights – with Bertsch with a 46 and "TIMMY!!!!!!!" with a 48. Could B group status be in their future?

Looks like my prediction of Dube being comeback player of the year just ain't happenin'! Say it ain't so Paul?

Weather looks good and close to 80 degrees Thursday so should be a great day out there. By Thursday hopefully the fairways will have dried out a bit and we all will get more distance on our drives! This is assuming you hit the fairways!

Notes:

Captains need to e-mail the handicapper, Pete Michno, no later than 1100 Wednesday to give their line-ups. Due to the website issue we have to print cards out earlier!

Captains should inform all retirees and non-NUWC members on their teams to use the website for all League information.

Slow Play Watch:

Again, no comment. Had an early tee time and no one was in the 19th so didn't hang around. Hope all was good.
